

SEC. 3. The conveyance of the property authorized by this Act shall be upon condition that whenever the Congress declares a state of war or national emergency, or the President declares a state of national emergency, and upon the determination by the Secretary of the Army, with the approval of the Committees on Armed Services of the Senate and the House of Representatives, that the property authorized to be conveyed under this Act is necessary or useful for military purposes or for the national defense, the United States shall have the right, without obligation of making payment of any kind, to reenter upon the property and use the same or any part thereof for the duration of such state of war or such national emergency and for six months thereafter. Upon the termination of such state of war or of such national emergency plus six months, the property shall revert to the owners thereof, but the United States shall have no obligation to restore the property in any way.

Right of U. S. to reenter.

SEC. 4. In executing the deed of conveyance authorized by this Act, the Secretary of the Army shall include specific provisions covering the reservation and condition contained in sections 2 and 3 of this Act.

SEC. 5. The sum received by the Secretary of the Army as consideration for the conveyance authorized by this Act shall be deposited by him in the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

Approved July 9, 1952.
